GUANTANAMO BAY
DETAINEE LITIGATION

Misc. No. 08-442 (TFH)

Civil Action No. 05-CV-2367
(RWR)

STATUS REPORT

Pursuant to paragraph 1 of this Court's July 11, 2008 Scheduling Order, undersigned counsel for the respondents states the following status of this case:

1) Mohammad Rahim, a national of Afghanistan, is the detainee-petitioner in this habeas corpus case. The petitioner is currently detained by the Armed Forces of the United States at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, and is identified by Internment Serial Number 1104.

2) The Protective Order has been entered in this case.

3) The detainee is represented in this petition by a next friend. The Protective Order was entered in this case, so counsel has had the opportunity to visit the petitioner and receive direct authorization to pursue the action. Because such authorization has not been filed, however, it is unknown whether the petitioner consents to this matter proceeding. Counsel should be required to demonstrate direct authorization from the petitioner before merits-related matters are scheduled in this case.

4) A Combatant Status Review Tribunal ("CSRT") convened by the Department of Defense determined the petitioner to be an enemy combatant. The petitioner has not been approved for release or transfer from Guantanamo Bay by the Department of Defense. The petitioner has not been charged with crimes triable by military commission under the Military Commissions Act of 2006.

5) The petitioner filed this petition for a writ of habeas corpus on 12/9/2005. The respondent has filed the CSRT record, styled as a "factual return," in this case.

RESPONDENTS' STATUS REPORT AND RESPONSE TO COURT'S JULY 11, 2008 ORDER

Respondents hereby submit this status report and response to the Court's July 11, 2008 Order.

BACKGROUND

In late 2005, when enactment of Congressional legislation withdrawing the habeas jurisdiction of the federal courts to hear actions brought by or on behalf of aliens detained at Guantanamo Bay became imminent, a surge of petitions for writ of habeas corpus on behalf of Guantanamo detainees were filed in the district court. The above-captioned habeas action, filed on December 13, 2005, is one of these petitions. Unlike the majority of pending Guantanamo detainee habeas cases filed on behalf of only one or a few detainees, however, counsel elected to file this case on behalf of 63 named petitioners, typically unrelated except by virtue of alleged detention at Guantanamo Bay.

As explained below, the petitioners in this case fall into four distinct categories: 1) petitioners whom respondents have not been able to identify as detainees at Guantanamo Bay; 2) petitioners who are currently detained at Guantanamo Bay and who have previously-filed petitions for writ of habeas corpus pending on their behalf; 3) petitioners who have been transferred from the custody of the United States and are no longer detained at Guantanamo Bay;

and 4) petitioners whom respondents have identified as current detainees at Guantanamo Bay and who do not have previously-filed petitions pending on their behalf.

STATUS OF PETITIONERS

1. Petitioners Whom Respondents Have Been Unable to Identify as Detainees at Guantanamo Bay.

Respondents have been unable to identify 34 petitioners in this case as current or former detainees at Guantanamo Bay. A list of these petitioners is included in the chart attached hereto as Exhibit A (listing petitioners in Case No. 08-MC-442 whom respondents cannot identify). Given the similar names and aliases of many of the approximately 270 individuals detained at Guantanamo Bay, and based on the minimal information about these petitioners provided in the petition, respondents have been unable to confirm the identities of these petitioners. In some cases, the information provided in the petition did not match or resemble information pertaining to any detainee at Guantanamo Bay. In other cases, the information provided in the petition matched or resembled information contained in respondents' records that pertains to multiple detainees; therefore, respondents were unable to determine conclusively on whose behalf habeas relief is purportedly being sought. Counsel for respondents and petitioners are in the process of conferring to resolve the identity situation for these petitioners.

2. Petitioners Who Are Currently Detained At Guantanamo Bay And Who Have Previously-Filed Petitions for Writ of Habeas Corpus Pending On Their Behalf In District Court.

Of the petitioners in this case whom respondents have been able to identify as detainees currently detained at Guantanamo Bay, approximately 16 have previously-filed habeas corpus petitions pending on their behalf or have chosen to pursue habeas relief in a later-filed case.

These duplicate petitions are either pending in other habeas cases in the District Court, or in the above-captioned case, i.e., one detainee is named multiple times in the Halmandy petition.

Pursuant to the Court's July 11, 2008 Order directing the parties to submit a joint status report on July 21, 2008, identifying all duplicate petitions that were filed on behalf of a single individual in the coordinated cases in Misc. No. 08-MC-442, counsel for respondents and petitioners will report on the status of the duplicate petitioners in the joint report.

3. Petitioners Who Have Been Transferred from the Custody of the United States and Are No Longer Detained at Guantanamo Bay

Of the petitioners whom respondents have been able to identify, 10 have been transferred from the custody of the United States and are no longer detained at Guantanamo Bay. A list of these petitioners is included in the chart attached hereto as Exhibit B (listing petitioners in Case No. 08-MC-442 who are no longer detained at Guantanamo Bay and noting existence of duplicate petition, if any). Because these petitioners are no longer within the custody of the United States, the petitions for writ of habeas corpus filed on their behalf are moot and should, therefore, be dismissed.<sup>1</sup>

4. Petitioners Whom Respondents Have Identified as Detainees at Guantanamo Bay and Who Do Not Have Apparent Previously-Filed Petitions Pending on Their Behalf in District Court

Of the petitioners whom respondents have been able to identify, 4 are currently detained at Guantanamo Bay and do not have duplicate petitions pending on their behalf. A list of these petitioners is below:

	Petitioner	ISN	Petition Citation	Nationality
1.	Sabry Mohammed	570	¶ 55	Yemen
2.	Muhammed Saad Iqbal Madni	743	¶ 18	Pakistan
3.	Saki Bacha <sup>2</sup>	900	¶ 8	Afghanistan
4.	Mohammed Kameen <sup>3</sup>	1045	¶ 7	Afghanistan

Combatant Status Review Tribunals (“CSRT”) convened by the Department of Defense have determined that all of the petitioners listed in the above table are enemy combatants. Two of the petitioners have been charged with crimes triable by military commission under the Military Commissions Act of 2006. None of the petitioners have been approved for release or transfer from Guantanamo Bay by the Department of Defense.

Respondents note that the petition in this case does not allege that it was authorized by the petitioners seeking relief, but was instead filed purportedly on petitioners’ behalf by an attorney seeking to anoint herself as the “next friend” for all 63 petitioners. See Petition For Writ Of Habeas Corpus (dkt. no. 1), Declaration of Barbara Olshansky. Because direct authorizations to pursue this action have not been filed with the Court, it is unknown whether the petitioners consent to this matter proceeding. Counsel should be required to demonstrate direct authorizations from the petitioners before merits-related proceedings are scheduled in this case. Respondents reserve the right to challenge such authorizations as well as the legal basis for Ms.

RESPONDENTS' STATUS REPORT AND RESPONSE TO COURT'S JULY 11, 2008 ORDER

Respondents hereby submit this status report and response to the Court's July 11, 2008 Order.

BACKGROUND

In late 2005, when enactment of Congressional legislation withdrawing the habeas jurisdiction of the federal courts to hear actions brought by or on behalf of aliens detained at Guantanamo Bay became imminent, a surge of petitions for writ of habeas corpus on behalf of Guantanamo detainees were filed in the district court. The above-captioned habeas action, filed on December 13, 2005, is one of these petitions. Unlike the majority of pending Guantanamo detainee habeas cases filed on behalf of only one or a few detainees, however, counsel elected to file this case on behalf of 168 named petitioners, typically unrelated except by virtue of alleged detention at Guantanamo Bay.

As explained below, the petitioners in this case fall into four distinct categories: 1) petitioners whom respondents have not been able to identify as detainees at Guantanamo Bay; 2) petitioners who are currently detained at Guantanamo Bay and who have previously-filed petitions for writ of habeas corpus pending on their behalf; 3) petitioners who have been transferred from the custody of the United States and are no longer detained at Guantanamo Bay;

and 4) petitioners whom respondents have identified as current detainees at Guantanamo Bay and who do not have previously-filed petitions pending on their behalf.

STATUS OF PETITIONERS

1. Petitioners Whom Respondents Have Been Unable to Identify as Detainees at Guantanamo Bay.

Respondents have been unable to identify 51 petitioners in this case as current or former detainees at Guantanamo Bay. A list of these petitioners is included in the chart attached hereto as Exhibit A (listing petitioners in Case No. 08-MC-442 whom respondents cannot identify). Given the similar names and aliases of many of the approximately 270 individuals detained at Guantanamo Bay, and based on the minimal information about these petitioners provided in the petition, respondents have been unable to confirm the identities of these petitioners. In some cases, the information provided in the petition did not match or resemble information pertaining to any detainee at Guantanamo Bay. In other cases, the information provided in the petition matched or resembled information contained in respondents' records that pertains to multiple detainees; therefore, respondents were unable to determine conclusively on whose behalf habeas relief is purportedly being sought. To address this problem, on June 27, 2006, the Court ordered respondents to "notify the Court by July 26, 2006, of all petitioners named in this case whom they are unable to identify," and noted that "[a]ny petitioner whom the respondents indicate they are unable to identify shall have the opportunity to challenge the respondents' assertion that he cannot be identified." See dkt. No. 66. On July 26, 2006, pursuant to the Court's Order, respondents filed a status report notifying the Court of all petitioners in this case who (1) have previously-filed petitions for a writ of habeas corpus already pending on their behalf in other cases; and (2) have not been identified by respondents. See dkt. no. 109. Since the filing of that status report nearly two years ago, respondents have been able to identify some petitioners in this case based on additional information provided by petitioners' counsel. However, at present, 51 petitioners have not been identified. Because petitioners have been on notice for nearly two years that respondents have not been able to identify these petitioners as Guantanamo Bay detainees, and petitioners have not provided additional information to resolve the identity situation, these 51 petitioners should be dismissed from this case.

2. Petitioners Who Are Currently Detained At Guantanamo Bay And Who Have Previously-Filed Petitions for Writ of Habeas Corpus Pending On Their Behalf In District Court.

Of the petitioners in this case whom respondents have been able to identify as detainees currently detained at Guantanamo Bay, approximately 47 have previously-filed habeas corpus petitions pending on their behalf or have chosen to pursue habeas relief in a later-filed case. These duplicate petitions are either pending in other habeas cases in the District Court, or in the above-captioned case, i.e., one detainee is named multiple times in the Mohammon petition. Pursuant to the Court's July 11, 2008 Order directing the parties to submit a joint status report on July 21, 2008, identifying all duplicate petitions that were filed on behalf of a single individual in the coordinated cases in Misc. No. 08-MC-442, counsel for respondents and petitioners will report on the status of the duplicate petitioners in the joint report.

3. Petitioners Who Have Been Transferred from the Custody of the United States and Are No Longer Detained at Guantanamo Bay

Of the petitioners whom respondents have been able to identify, 41 have been transferred from the custody of the United States and are no longer detained at Guantanamo Bay. A list of these petitioners is included in the chart attached hereto as Exhibit B (listing petitioners in Case No. 08-MC-442 who are no longer detained at Guantanamo Bay and noting existence of duplicate petition, if any). Because these petitioners are no longer within the custody of the United States, the petitions for writ of habeas corpus filed on their behalf are moot and should, therefore, be dismissed.<sup>1</sup>

4. Petitioners Whom Respondents Have Identified as Detainees at Guantanamo Bay and Who Do Not Have Apparent Previously-Filed Petitions Pending on Their Behalf in District Court

Of the petitioners whom respondents have been able to identify, 30 are currently detained at Guantanamo Bay and do not have duplicate petitions pending on their behalf. A list of these petitioners is below:<sup>2</sup>

	Petitioner	ISN	Petition Citation	Nationality	Special Status
1.	Ahmed Omar	30	¶ 318	Yemen
2.	Alkhadr Abdullah Al Yafie	34	¶ 266	Yemen	Approved for release/transfer

5.	Mohammed Al Palestini	49	¶ 15	Palestine	Approved for release/transfer
6.	Abd Al Zaher	89	¶ 25	Azerbaijan

Combatant Status Review Tribunals (“CSRT”) convened by the Department of Defense have determined that all of the petitioners listed in the above table are enemy combatants. None of the petitioners have been charged with crimes triable by military commission under the Military Commissions Act of 2006. Nine of the petitioners have been approved for release or transfer from Guantanamo Bay by the Department of Defense.

Pursuant to the Court’s June 27, 2006 Order, the Court has entered the Protective Order with respect to above-listed petitioners. See June 27, 2006 Order at 5. Even though the Protective Order is entered with regard to these petitioners, thereby allowing their counsel to have the opportunity to have privileged access to them, the petitioners are nonetheless represented in the petition by a next friend. Because direct authorizations to pursue this action have not been filed with the Court, it is unknown whether the petitioners consent to this matter proceeding. Counsel should be required to demonstrate direct authorization from the petitioners before merits-related proceedings are scheduled in this case.

The petitioner has not been approved for release or transfer from Guantanamo Bay by the Department of Defense. The petitioner has been charged with crimes triable by military commission under the Military Commissions Act of 2006.
- 5) The petitioner filed this petition for a writ of habeas corpus on 12/12/2005. On May 10, 2007, the Court dismissed petitioner's petition for lack of subject matter jurisdiction [dkt #23]. Petitioner has not filed a notice of appeal of that dismissal order or moved for reconsideration of the dismissal order. Respondents do not oppose vacature of the dismissal of the petition.

6) The respondents have not filed the CSRT record, styled as a "factual return," in this case.
